Israel from Home!
Shalom Chaverim,

Today, as another at-home week comes to an end, we welcome the big Shabbat, the Shabbat before Passover.

In Passover we ask ourselves "Ma Nishtanan HaLayla Hazeh?"- how is this night different than any other night?
As we welcome the Shabbat, I encourage you to think how are you making this day at home different than any other? What can you do differently that will make the Shabbat special, and a day that gives you solace and joy? could we put our phones down for a few hours? have a meaningful not-Coronaful conversation? perhaps honor ourselves for a couple of hours? How would that look like? The Shabbat was given to us as a gift. How are you using your gift?

I want to share with you an opportunity we put out there this week- if you'd like to join another family/community member and have a virtual Seder together, please email me at yaara.levy@jewishpalmbeach.org and we'll find you a match!

Reminder- Every Friday you'll get a new booklet filled with fun, joy, and a lot of blue and white!

This beautiful kit was created together with all the JAFI Shlichim in North America, with love to our communities. A special thank you to Ron Lugasi who put this together and designed it all.

Don't worry, we didn't forgot to include a small section for parents:)

Stay safe and healthy!
Shabbat Shalom,

A Candle in a Bottle

Things you need: Hanukkah candle, string and a bottle.

Rules:
Tie a string on the waist so it hangs like a tail. To the tail part tie a candle. Place the bottle on the floor behind the place where you are standing. Each participant needs to get the candle in the bottle without touching it.

The person who gets the candle in the bottle first wins!

For a tournament, consider playing with a different size of circumference.
Learning Hebrew
Chaval Al HaZman – חבל על זכויות
Literally "a waste of time" – Means awesome, amazing (this could also mean the complete opposite – depending on the intonation)

Al HaPanim – על הפנים
Literally "on the face" – means awful, bad – e.g. “the pizza at that restaurant was "al ha’panim"

Eize Basa – באסה 아이ז
Derived loosely from the Arabic "yom asal yom basal" meaning "a honey day, an onion day" in other words – "what a drag"

Fashla – פשלה
Means a "screw up" or "mess up" – e.g. "The plumber did a real fashla on the shower hose"

Israeli Cooking with the Kids
Icebox Cake

Ingredients

For biscuits:
- 250 grams Graham Crackers
- 3/4 cup milk

For the mascarpone cream:
- 225 grams mascarpone cheese at room temperature
- 375 ml. cold whipping cream
- 1 tbsp. instant vanilla pudding powder
- 2 tbsp. powdered sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla extract

For decoration:
- Cocoa powder

Instructions

- Dip the crackers in the milk and arrange the first layer in the baking pan.
- Mascarpone cream: In a mixer bowl whip mascarpone, whipping cream, instant pudding, powdered sugar and vanilla until you get a very firm and stable cream.
- Pour 1/4 of the cream on top of the biscuit layer and straighten the top.
- Arrange another layer of milk-soaked biscuits and over it more 1/4 the amount of cream.
- Continue arranging the layers of the cake and finish with a top layer of cream.
- Sprinkle with cocoa powder at the top and serve.

Recipe Notes:

- You can keep the cake covered in the refrigerator for 4-5 days.
- Instead of mascarpone you can use natural cream cheese, but the taste will change slightly accordingly.
