Sample Character Letter

To Whom This May Concern:

I am writing this letter to provide a character reference for Karen Hall. I met Karen when she was a student in my 6th grade history class at West Palm Beach Middle School. As Karen's teacher, I am pleased to be able to write this letter as a way of helping her accomplish her goals of becoming an artist. The Hall family is interested in obtaining reimbursement for an extracurricular art program. This program will help Karen reach her goals and refine her skills in the arts. This program will certainly improve Karen's quality of life and foster her passions.

As a student, Karen always was a hard worker, asked for help when needed, and applied herself to her studies, despite her learning difficulties. Karen struggles with retaining information, time management, and sustaining attention. Her family is supportive of her interests in the arts and acknowledges her learning challenges. Additionally, while enrolled in school, Karen is active in school clubs (Habitat for Humanity and Middle School Art Club) and volunteers with her Jewish Youth Group on the weekends. I have a great deal of respect and admiration for the Hall family and am convinced that Karen will be successful at any goal she decides to pursue.
