- Develops compelling and persuasive fundraising appeal copywriting deployed through direct mail, email, telemarketing and various digital channels.
- Writes, edits, proofreads and serves as internal consultant for program and event materials including event invitations, leadership event remarks, print collateral, outreach communications, and web/digital updates.
- Utilizes communications expertise to implement short, succinct, compelling work product that reflects the personality of the organization and leverages impact data, program and partner information, and donor and beneficiary stories.
- Obtains content for writing assignments through consistent interaction with staff and lay leaders as well as agencies, synagogues, and other constituencies, and translate it into clear, brief, and powerful messaging that resonates with target audiences.
- Works closely with the CEO and other senior managers to produce custom acknowledgments, correspondence and other critical major donor communications as needed.
- Works with VP, Marketing and Director, Communications to promote Mosaic, Federation's magazine-style television show, including advertising, e-News articles and social media posts.
- Works with VP, Marketing and Community Campaign Analyst to write direct response letters, acknowledgements and correspondence for Mosaic underwriters and guests.
- Adapts messaging across multiple platforms, including print, online and video, as well as advertising copy, email blasts, marketing collateral and social media platforms.
- Supports strategic marketing plans pertaining to public relations, communications, advertising, and social media.
- Interprets projects briefs to understand project requirements and collaborate with designers, project coordinator and other professionals on marketing projects.
- Supports the marketing team's commitment to customer service, helping to uphold reputation of marketing department as a problem solver, strategic thinker and collaborative partner.

- Works with SVP, External Affairs and VP, Marketing to write communications related to emergency situations, corporate sponsorships and special projects.
- Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications and Success Factors:

- Bachelor's degree required.
- Three or more years' writing sales/marketing copy for an advertising or marketing agency or working as a copywriter in a dynamic product or service marketing organization or equivalent combination of relevant education, experience and skills required.
- Outstanding written and oral communications skills; editing and proofreading a must.
